2. The proponent staff activity is responsible for insuring that the availability of the awards is adequately publicized and that field level or headquarters level nominations are submitted with required documentation, if required, in a timely manner, and that nominations reach the activity authorized to approve the award within the time period specified in NGR 672-1.

*This supplement supersedes Supplement Number 1, dated 2 Sept 1987.

15 December 1988

3. The Director of Administration (CAAS) is appointed the Awards Administrator, to monitor the awards listed in NGR 672-1. The Awards Administrator will coordinate with the proponent staff agency and serve as a single point of contact for NGB on the awards program. The Awards Administrator will be responsible to The Adjutant General for monitoring the NGR 672-1 awards program for the California Army National Guard.

4. In order to properly monitor this program, proponent offices will forward all nominations to CAAS for final action. Prior to forwarding, it is the proponent's responsibility to insure that information contained in the nomination is accurate, complete and any staffing required is obtained. The Director of Administration will arrange for Board action where required and/or forward to NGB or Sixth U.S. Army, as appropriate, for final disposition. Nominations must reach CAAS in sufficient time to meet higher Headquarters suspense date.

5. The Director of Administration is responsible for publishing, annually, a CAL ARNG Circular establishing suspense dates for submission of awards to this headquarters, plus suspense dates for any additional awards that may be authorized but which are not contained in this regulation.
